How Millionaires Succeed in Piling Up Enormous Wealth.

Not Difficult for Any One to Follow Their Example.

It is popularly supposed that a few men like
Gould, Vanderbilt and Astor represent the rich

This is a great mistake. There are thousands upon thousands of millionaires, men so rich that they cannot possibly spend the interest upon their vast accumulations. Every city, every town, every community has them, the

Now if so many men succeed, what is the true secret of that success?

Two words answer—energy and health.

Any man of indomitable energy and perseverance who is well can succeed.

Ah, there is the rub—who is well?

Men have the energy and ability to succeed, but they do not possess the requisite health—that strength of the nerves, vigor of the mind and endurance and tirelessness which alone make men succeed.

They feel languid, even weak at times, and lack snap and ambition; they know they have the necessary ability, but their energies need rousing. In some cases the stomach, liver and bowels are at fault, or possibly the kidneys are out of order. Nine times out of ten, however, it is lack of nerve strength, nerve vigor and nerve power.

Numberless men who have ample vigor at first break down in health from the excessive strain upon their nervous and physical systems, as did the well-known S. W. Nourse, Esq., of Hudson, Mass. He strikes the key note of the difficulty, and his advice, if followed, will put men on the sure road to wealth.

S. W. MOORE, ESQ.

"From constant worry over business matters I have suffered for the last few days."

and became so nervous that I was entirely unfitted for my business. In fact, I feared insanity. I used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. The effect was almost magical. I could again sleep; mental composure, appetite and strength returned. Six bottles of this remedy cured me, and I have remained well to this date. I have recommended Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to many of my friends and neighbors, and have yet to learn of a failure to obtain good results."

Nothing more need be said. Get your health, and you will stand every chance of succeeding in life. If you are not well, if you do not feel fine right, if you lack the vim, energy and strength to take hold of your work, by all means use the wonderful remedy which restored Mr. Nourse to health and power to work.

You can procure it at any druggist's for $1, and we would say also that it is a purely vegetable and harmless remedy, used and fully indorsed by physicians—in fact, it is the discovery of the emi-new physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 12th St., New York, who has made himself famous throughout the United States by his marvellous cures of nervous and chronic diseases and by giving advice free to those who consult him or write to him.

Foremen, or others, having charge of men in factories, mills, or manufacturing establishments can make big money without interfering with their regular business for the approaching holidays.

Frankness Rewarded.

Dr. Bluff—My dear fellow, this supposed sickness of yours is all imagination.

Mr. Gruff—All right, doctor: I suppose, then, you'll be contented with an imaginary fee!

THE POET LAUREATESHIP CONTEST

Sir Edwin Arnold's Competitive Ode.

I knew a little Japanese,
She was just sixteen, she said,
She used to get down on her knees
And scrub till my heart bled!

"Take care, you'll spoil that little hand,"
I cried in loving awe,
But she kept right on scrubbing, and

She never opened her jaw:
She scoured until her little house
Shone like a looking-glass;
Upon the white floor, like a mouse,
I saw her brown hand pass,
At length she raised her dainty face
And calmly said: "Prig, go!
I need no help to run this place
When I have SAROLIO!"
